- (f) subject to subsection (2), a person present at an athletic meeting who has in his possession the firearm and ammunition for the purpose of starting the races at that meeting;
- (g) any person (including a restricted person) who came into possession of any firearm or ammunition in the capacity of executor or administrator of the estate of any deceased person, or trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator of any insolvent person or of any company in liquidation, during the period of thirty days after the day upon which he came into possession of the firearm or ammunition;
- (h) any servant or agent of any of the persons referred to in paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) who has possession of any firearm or ammunition entrusted to him with the written permission of the Commissioner for delivery to the owner or to some person who is about to become the owner thereof in accordance with this Act;
- (i) any customs officer or any police officer who has possession of any firearm or ammunition that came into his possession pursuant to this Act during such period as the firearm or ammunition is retained by him pursuant to this Act;
- (j) the owner of a firearm (not being a slaughtering instrument) or of any ammunition who is exempt from the payment of appropriate fee under section 39(2);
- (k) members of a registered rifle club.

(2) Subsection (1)(e), (f) and (k) shall not apply so as to exempt any person mentioned therein from the provision of section 6(1), unless he has obtained from the Commissioner permission in writing to possess the firearm and ammunition for such purpose.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1)(g) shall be taken to authorise any person to bring into possession of a firearm or ammunition in carry the firearm or ammunition in any public place or in any way to use the firearm or ammunition and if any such person carries, except for the purpose of complying with section 42(1), a firearm or ammunition in a public place or in any way uses the firearm or ammunition he is guilty of an offence under section 6(1) in addition to any other offence he may have committed.

(4) Nothing in section 6(1) shall be construed so as to make any person liable for an offence thereunder, if a firearm or ammunition is in the possession of any officer of a Court for the purpose only of any legal proceedings in which the firearm or ammunition is in the custody of the Court.

Carrying firearm or ammunition in public place.
[16 of 1985].

8. A person other than a police officer, a customs officer, a member of a registered rifle club or a member of the armed forces of the State acting in his capacity as such who carries any firearm or ammunition in any public place that is prescribed by the Minister is liable on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

Offences relating to selling or transferring firearms or ammunition.

9. (1) A person who sells or transfers a firearm or ammunition to any other person who does not hold or who is not exempted from holding a firearm user's licence is liable –

- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years; or
- (b) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for five years.

(2) A person is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years who sells or transfers a firearm or ammunition to, or repairs, tests or proves any firearm or ammunition for, any other person whom he knows, or has reasonable cause to believe, to be –

- (a) a restricted person;
- (b) drunk or under the influence of drugs or of unsound mind;
- (c) at the time of such sale or transfer otherwise unfit to be entrusted with such a firearm or ammunition; or
- (d) under the age of eighteen years.

(3) The provisions of this section shall apply whether or not the person selling or transferring a firearm or ammunition is the holder of a a firearm dealer's licence or, in the case of a person who repairs, tests or proves a firearm or ammunition, a gunsmith's licence.

10. (1) Without prejudice to any liability for the commission of an offence under any other law, a person who has in his possession or under his control in Dominica any firearm or ammunition with intent to sell or transfer the firearm or ammunition to any other person in Dominica for the purpose of the commission of any crime (including an offence under this Act) is liable –

Special offence as to possession of firearms in certain circumstances.

- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years; or
- (b) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for five years.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), where any firearms or ammunition is found in any ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance in Dominica, including in particular its territorial waters—

- (a) the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance may be seized by any customs officer, police officer or member of the armed forces of the State;
- (b) the master or any person in control of the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence under subsection (1) unless he proves that the firearms or ammunition were in the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance without his consent, knowledge or connivance and that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

(3) Nothing in subsection 2(b) shall apply if the master or other person proves to the satisfaction of the Court that the firearms or ammunition are cargo properly manifested to consignees in Dominica or elsewhere or are bona fide stores of any ship, vessel or aircraft, in the custody of the proper officer authorised for the purpose.

(4) Nothing in subsection (2) shall apply to any ship, vessel or aircraft belonging to the Naval or Air Forces of any other State, if permission to come into territorial waters of Dominica has been

(5) Where any person is convicted of an offence under this section, the Court before which he is convicted shall order that the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, if any, used for the purpose of conveying the firearm or ammunition be forfeited and, upon the order being made, the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance shall, unless an application under subsection (6) is successful, be sold and the proceeds of the sale paid into the general revenue.

(6) Where any ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance is ordered to be forfeited under subsection (5), the owner of the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance may make a claim to the Court for the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance to be restored to him.

(7) Where a claim is made to the Court under subsection (6), the Court may, subject to subsection (8), order that the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance shall be restored to the owner thereof on payment by him of any expenses incurred for transporting and keeping the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance for the purposes of this section.

(8) A Court shall not make an order under subsection (7) unless it is satisfied that the owner, charterer or master of the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance, as the case may be –

- (a) did not permit any person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) to use the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance for the purpose of conveying any firearm or ammunition in respect of which the offence was committed;
- (b) had no knowledge that any person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) would use the ship, vessel, aircraft, vehicle or other means of conveyance for the purpose of conveying any firearm or ammunition in respect of which the offence was committed;

Restrictions discharge of firearms and
ammunition.

11. (1) A person is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars who discharges any firearm or ammunition on or within forty yards of any public road or in any public place, except –

- (a) in the lawful protection of his person or property or of the person or property of another, or

(b) under the direction of some civil or military authority authorised to give the direction; or

(c) with the permission of the Commissioner.

(2) A police officer may without warrant enter any premises on which he has reasonable cause to believe an offence under subsection (1) was committed, and search for and seize any firearms and ammunition there found which he has reasonable cause to believe were used in the contravention and may retain the firearm or ammunition for so long as may be necessary for the purpose of any investigation in relation thereto and, where the investigation results in legal proceedings against any person for any such offence, until the legal proceedings are finally determined.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall apply in the case of the accidental discharge of a firearm.

(4) Where any person is charged with an offence under subsection (1), the burden of proving that the discharge of the firearm or ammunition in respect of which the contravention is alleged to have occurred was accidental or otherwise a lawful discharge shall lie upon the person asserting the same.

12. (1) A person who has in his possession any firearm or ammunition with intent by means thereof to endanger life or cause serious injury to property, or to enable any other person to endanger life or cause serious injury to property is, whether any injury to person or property has been caused or not, liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for ten years.

Penalty for possessing firearms or ammunition with intent to injure.

(2) Without prejudice to any other circumstances in which a person may be held to have had the specific intent required by subsection (1), a person shall be held to have had such intent if, at the time he had a firearm or ammunition in his possession, he made any unlawful demand of or any threat to any other person.

13. (1) A person who makes or attempts to make any use whatever of a firearm or imitation firearm in furtherance of the commission of any offence, or with intent to resist or prevent the lawful apprehension or detention of himself or some other person, is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for five years.

Penalty for use and possession of imitation firearm in certain circumstances.

(2) Where a person commits an offence against subsection (1) by using or attempting to use a firearm or imitation firearm in the lawful apprehension or detention of himself for any other offence committed by him, he is liable to the penalty provided by that subsection in addition to any penalty to which he may be sentenced for that felony or other offence.

(3) Where an offence in relation to a firearm or imitation firearm is charged, but the evidence establishes the commission of an offence in relation to an imitation firearm or firearm respectively, the accused shall not be entitled to an acquittal, but he may be convicted of the offence of which the evidence establishes the commission.

(4) In this section “imitation firearm” means anything which has the appearance of being a firearm whether it is capable of discharging any ammunition or not.

Penalty for use of firearms or ammunition in contravention of terms or conditions of licences, &c.

14. Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this Part, a person who, being the holder of a licence, certificate or permit, contravenes any of the terms or conditions thereof, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for three months.

Prohibition on manufacture, &c., of firearm or ammunition.

15. (1) No person may manufacture any firearm or ammunition in Dominica and, in particular, a person other than the holder of a gunsmith’s licence shall not –

- (a) shorten the barrel of any firearm;
- (b) convert into a firearm anything which is not a firearm;
or
- (c) convert into a prohibited weapon anything which is not a prohibited weapon.

(2) The holder of a gunsmith’s licence shall not do any of the things referred to in subsection (1), except with the prior written approval of the Commissioner.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable, in the case of –

- (a) an offence in relation to the manufacture of prohibited weapons, on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for five years and to a fine,
- (b) an offence in relation to the manufacture of firearms or ammunition, other than a prohibited weapon –
  - (i) on summary conviction, to a fine of six thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years;

- (ii) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for five years;
- (c) an offence in relation to subsection (1)(a) or (b) –
  - (i) on summary conviction, to a fine of six thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years; or
  - (ii) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for five years;
- (d) an offence in relation to subsection (1)(c) –
  - (i) on summary conviction, to a fine of fifteen thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years;
  - (ii) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for seven years.
- (4) A person who has in his possession a firearm –
  - (a) the barrel of which has been shortened; or
  - (b) in relation to which an offence under subsection (1)(b) or (c) has been committed, shall be deemed, unless he proves the contrary, to have committed the offence under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), respectively.

PART II

LICENCES

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 16. Every application for any licence, certificate or permit shall –
- (a) be addressed to the Commissioner;
  - (b) be in the prescribed form;
  - (c) contain the prescribed particulars;
  - (d) be accompanied by the prescribed number (if any) of photographs of the prescribed dimensions of the person to whom the licence, certificate or permit applied for is desired to be granted;
  - (e) bear upon it, if so prescribed, a specimen of the signature of the person whom the licence, certificate or permit applied for is desired to be granted;

Application for licences,
certificates and permits.

(f) be signed by the applicant; and

(g) be accompanied by such other documents, if any, as may be prescribed.

General provisions as to grant and issue of licences, certificates and permits.

17. (1) Subject to this section and to section 16, the grant of any licence, certificate or permit shall be in the discretion of the Commissioner.

(2) No licence, certificate or permit shall be granted in relation to any prohibited weapon.

(3) No licence, certificate or permit other than a firearm disposal permit shall be granted to or held by a restricted person except with the prior permission of the Minister.

(4) A firearm import permit, a firearm user's licence or a firearm user's (employee's) certificate shall be granted by the Commissioner only if he is satisfied that the applicant has a good reason for importing, purchasing, acquiring or having in his possession the firearm or ammunition in respect of which the application is made, and can be permitted to have in his possession that firearm or ammunition without danger to the public safety or to the peace; so, however, that such a permit, certificate or licence shall not be granted to a person whom the Commissioner has reason to believe to be of intemperate habits or unsound mind or to be for any reason unfit to be entrusted with such a firearm or ammunition.

(5) A licence or certificate shall not be issued to any person until the appropriate fee has been paid.

(6) A licence shall remain in force until revoked or otherwise terminated.

Firearm user's (employee's) certificate.

18. (1) Any licence in respect of firearms and ammunition in force at the coming into operation of this Act shall be deemed to have been issued under this Act.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner, on application of any person who is acting with the written consent of the holder of a firearm user's licence in respect of a particular firearm specified in the application, may grant to such person a firearm user's (employee's) certificate which shall authorise such person to keep, carry and use in connection with the business of the holder of the firearm user's licence the particular firearm specified in the certificate and the

19. (1) Every licence, certificate or permit shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain the prescribed particulars and shall specify the conditions (if any) subject to which it is held, and if so prescribed, shall bear upon it a photograph of the prescribed dimensions of the person to whom it is granted and a specimen of the signature of that person.

General provision as to licences, certificates and permits.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), every licence, certificate or permit shall be subject to the prescribed conditions and to such other terms and conditions as the Commissioner may impose.

20. (1) The Commissioner may at any time by notice in writing to the holder of a licence, certificate or permit vary the conditions other than such conditions as may be prescribed subject to which the licence, certificate or permit is held.

Amendment of licences, certificates and permits.

(2) A licence, certificate or permit may also, on the application of the holder thereof, be varied from time to time by the Commissioner.

21. The Commissioner may revoke any licence, certificate or permit –

Revocation of licences, certificates and permits.

- (a) if, in the case of the holder of a firearm dealer's licence or a gunsmith's licence, he is convicted of an offence against this Act or of an offence against any written law relating to customs;
- (b) if he is satisfied that the holder thereof is of intemperate habits or of unsound mind, or is otherwise unfit to be entrusted with the firearm or ammunition mentioned in the licence, certificate or permit;
- (c) for non-payment of fees;
- (d) in any other case, if he thinks fit.

22. (1) The Commissioner may at any time he considers it necessary or expedient for the purpose of safeguarding the safety of the public, by Notice published in the Gazette and in at least one daily licences, certificates or permits granted by him under this Act or deemed to have been granted under this Act, and may by such Notice call upon the holders of the licences, certificates or permits to surrender all firearms and ammunition held by them by delivering the same to a police station.

Power to call in firearms and ammunition.

(2) A person who fails (within such time as is specified in the Notice) to comply with a Notice under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

Special restrictions upon holders of firearm dealers'
licences.

23. (1) A holder of a firearm dealer's licence shall not deal in firearms or ammunition elsewhere than at the place specified in his licence or in an amendment thereof.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months, or on conviction on indictment to a fine or to imprisonment for two years.

Restrictions relating to gunsmiths.

24. (1) A person shall not undertake the repair, test or proof of a firearm or ammunition for any other person except under and in accordance with the terms of the gunsmith's licence.

(2) A holder of a gunsmith's licence shall not accept delivery of any firearm or ammunition for the purpose of effecting any alteration or repair thereto –

- (a) elsewhere than at the premises in respect of which he is licensed as a gunsmith; and
- (b) from any person unless that person produces or causes to be produced a firearm dealer's licence or a firearm user's licence authorising him to buy, sell or be in possession of, as the case may be, such firearm or ammunition.

(3) A holder of a gunsmith's licence shall forthwith record in the records to be kept by him pursuant to section 26 particulars of any licence or certificate produced to him pursuant to subsection (2)(b), and shall in due course return such licence or certificate to the person who produced it.

(4) Every holder of a gunsmith's licence who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

Notice to be displayed by licences

25. (1) Every holder of a firearm dealer's licence or a gunsmith's licence shall cause to be affixed and kept affixed near the top of the principal entrances of the place in which or premises upon which he carries on business as a firearm dealer or a gunsmith, as the case may be, a board on which shall be printed in legible letters at least two inches in height the name in full of such licensee and the words "Licensed as a firearm dealer" or "Licensed as a gunsmith" respectively.

(2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for one month.

26. (1) Every licensed dealer shall provide and keep a register of transactions and shall enter or cause to be entered therein such particulars as may be prescribed of all transactions relating to his business as a licensed dealer. Records and returns.

(2) Every such entry shall be made within twenty-four hours after the transaction to which it relates took place and, in the case of a sale or transfer, every such licensed dealer shall at the time of the transaction require the purchaser or transferee, if not known to him, to furnish particulars sufficient for identification, and shall immediately enter the said particulars in the register.

(3) Every such licensed dealer shall on demand allow any police officer duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the Commissioner or any police officer of or above the rank of Inspector to enter and inspect all stock in hand and shall on request by –

(a) any police officer duly authorised in writing in that behalf by the Commissioner; or

(b) any customs officer; or

(c) any police officer of or above the rank of Inspector, produce for inspection the register required to be kept under subsection (1), but any written authority required by this subsection shall be produced on demand.

(4) Every person who is required to keep a register of transactions under subsection (1) shall make the returns to the authority in such form, in respect of such periods, at such time and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(5) Every person who contravenes this section or knowingly makes any false entry in the register required to be kept under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(6) A person who, in furnishing the particulars for any of the purposes of subsection (2), makes any statement which he knows to be misleading, false or deceptive, or by any dishonest concealment of material facts or by reckless making of any statement (dishonestly or otherwise), misleads or attempts to mislead any other person, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

(7) In this section, "licensed dealer" means the holder of a firearm dealer's licence or a gunsmith's licence.

PART III

POWER OF SEARCH AND TO OBTAIN INFORMATION

27. (1) The holder of a licence or certificate who is thereby authorised to carry a firearm and ammunition in a public place shall whenever he carries the firearm or ammunition in a public place have with him the licence or certificate in respect of the firearm and ammunition.

(2) Subject to subsection (4), except in the case of a person exempted by virtue of section 7, a police officer may require any person whom he sees or whom he believes to be carrying any firearm or ammunition in any public place to produce to him his licence or certificate in relation to the firearm or ammunition and to produce the firearm or ammunition.

(3) A person so required under subsection (2), who is so carrying a firearm or ammunition and who fails to produce the licence or certificate, as the case may be, or to permit the police officer to read the licence or certificate or to produce the firearm or ammunition or to permit him to examine the firearm or ammunition for the purpose of verifying the particulars in the licence or certificate, is guilty of an offence, and the provisions of subsection (4) as to search, seizure and retention of firearms and ammunition shall apply in any such case, and the police officer may, without warrant, arrest that person or may require that person to declare to him immediately his name and address.

(4) Where a police officer has reasonable cause to suspect that any person is carrying a firearm or ammunition in a public place contrary to any of the provisions of this Act, the police officer may without a warrant search that person and may seize and retain any firearm or ammunition carried by that person until such time as legal proceedings against that person for any offence in relation to the firearm or ammunition are finally determined, and may without warrant arrest that person.

Carrying of firearms and ammunition in public places - power of police as to.

(5) A person so required under subsection (3) who refuses to declare his name and address or fails to give his true name and address is guilty of an offence and the police officer may arrest without warrant any person who refuses so to declare his name and address, or whom he reasonably suspects of giving a false name or address or of intending to abscond.

(6) A police officer authorised in writing by the Commissioner may at any time require the holder of a licence, certificate or permit to produce for inspection the firearm and ammunition to which it relates, and any person who without good cause refuses or fails to do so is guilty of an offence.

(7) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for one year.

28. (1) The holder of a licence, certificate or permit in respect of any firearm or ammunition and any other person lawfully in possession of any firearm or ammunition by virtue of section 7(2) shall, within twenty-four hours after he discovers the loss or theft of his licence, certificate or permit, if any, or of the firearm or ammunition, report the loss or theft at a police station.

Report of loss or theft of firearm or ammunition, &c.

(2) A person who fails to comply with subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine of seven hundred and fifty dollars.

29. (1) A police officer in uniform may stop any vehicle for the purpose of ascertaining whether any firearm or ammunition is being conveyed therein and may search without warrant such vehicle, the driver thereof and any person conveyed therein.

Power to stop and search vehicles.

(2) A person is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for six months who—

(a) being the driver or person operating a vehicle fails to stop the vehicle at the request of a police officer under this section; or

(b) being the driver or other person operating the vehicle from stopping at the request of a police officer under this section; or

(c) escapes or attempts to escape from a vehicle after a request to stop under this section.

Search warrants.
[12 of 1990].

30. (1) A justice of the peace or a Magistrate on being satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been, is being, or is about to be committed, may grant a search warrant authorising any police officer named therein with the assistance of such other persons as he may require –

- (a) to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises or place and every person found therein; and
- (b) to seize any firearm or ammunition which he may find on the premises or in the place, or on any such person, in respect of which or in connection with which he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been, is being, or is about to be committed and to retain the firearm or ammunition for so long as may be necessary for the purpose of any investigation in relation thereto and, where the investigation results in legal proceedings against any person for any such offence, until the legal proceedings are finally determined.

(2) Where firearms or ammunition are found on the premises, the police officer making the search may arrest without warrant any person found on the premises or in the place whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of an offence under this Act other than an offence against section 28.

(3) Every person who hinders or molests or interferes with any police officer or other person referred to in subsection (1), doing anything that he is authorised by subsection (1) to do, or prevents or attempts to prevent any police officer or that other person from doing any such thing, is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

PART IV

IMPORTATION OF FIREARMS, ETC

Restriction on importation, exportation and transshipment of firearms and
ammunition.

31. (1) Notwithstanding any other law but subject to section 32, no person may import into Dominica any firearm or ammunition, except—

- (a) under and in accordance with the terms of a firearm import permit (including a permit under section 32), or

(b) firearms or ammunition that is cargo properly manifested to consignees elsewhere than in Dominica or that are the bona fide stores of any ship, vessel or aircraft in the custody of the proper officer authorised for the purpose.

(2) A person who contravenes or aids or abets any other person in contravening subsection (1) is liable –

(a) in the case of an offence relating to a prohibited weapon –

- (i) on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars or imprisonment for eighteen months;
- (ii) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for five years;

(b) in any other case –

- (i) on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months; or
- (ii) on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for two years.

(3) A person is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for twelve months who, except in accordance with the permission in writing of the Commissioner under section 33, exports any firearm or ammunition from Dominica.

32. (1) Every person who disembarks from any ship, vessel or aircraft which comes into Dominica from any port or place outside Dominica shall, whether or not required to do so by any customs officer, declare to a customs officer whether he has any and if so, what firearms or ammunition in his possession or under his control.

Travellers to make declaration of firearms and ammunition.

(2) A person referred to in subsection (1) who has any firearm or ammunition in his possession or under his control, unless he is the holder of a firearm import permit, shall either –

(a) cause the firearm or ammunition to be retained upon the vessel or aircraft upon which he came into Dominica until after the vessel or aircraft departs from Dominica; or

(b) deliver the firearm or ammunition to a customs officer to be dealt with in accordance with the Regulations.

(3) Without prejudice to any other offence for which he may be convicted under this Act or any other written law, a person is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars or to imprisonment for two years who contravenes the provisions of this section or makes a statement which he knows to be false or does not believe to be true.

Permission to take firearm abroad.

33. (1) Where the holder of a firearm user's licence is about to go outside Dominica and desires to take with him the firearm or ammunition to which the licence relates, he may apply to the Commissioner in the prescribed form for a permit to do so.

(2) The Commissioner may if he thinks fit grant a written permit to any such licensee to take the firearm and ammunition with him and, where the permission is granted, nothing in section 31(1) shall be construed so as to cause such a licensee to be guilty of an offence thereunder by reason only of his bringing the firearm and ammunition back into Dominica on the occasion of his return, save that nothing in this subsection shall affect the operation of section 32 in relation to the firearm or ammunition.

Special offence relating to firearms on aircraft.

34. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if without lawful authority he has on his person or under his personal control any firearm, ammunition, explosive or offensive weapon –

(a) when boarding or attempting to board or when disembarking from any aircraft; or

(b) while on board any aircraft operated by a company registered in Dominica.

(2) For the purposes of this section a person shall not be deemed to be acting with lawful authority unless he is acting in his capacity as a member of the armed forces of the State, a police officer or as a security officer employed by the operators of the aircraft, save that where the operator is a company registered in Dominica the security officer shall not be deemed to be acting with lawful authority unless he is the holder of a licence or certificate.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine of six thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years and on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for five years.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to any person who obtains the prior permission of the Commissioner to embark or disembark from, or to be on any aircraft on a flight scheduled to take place exclusively in Dominica, save that the operator of the aircraft may refuse to accept such a person as a passenger.

(5) In this section –

“explosive” means gunpowder, nitro-glycerine, dynamite, gun-cotton, blasting powders, fulminate of mercury or of other metals, coloured fires, and every other substance, whether similar to those above-mentioned or not, used or manufactured with a view to produce a practical effect by explosion or a pyrotechnic effect; and includes fog signals, fireworks, fuses, rockets, percussion caps, detonators, cartridges, ammunition of all descriptions and every adaptation or preparation of explosive as above defined;

“security officer” means a person employed by the operator of an aircraft for the protection of the aircraft and its passengers while in flight.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the lawful possession of a licence to carry a firearm in any public place shall not in itself afford a defence to any proceedings under this section.

PART V MISCELLANEOUS

35. Where any firearm or ammunition is carried in parts by two or more persons, each of such persons shall be deemed to carry a firearm or ammunition. Carrying firearm or ammunition in parts.

36. The Minister may make Regulations for the better carrying out of this Act, and in particular for prescribing anything required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed. Regulations.
